ST. LOUIS STAR PASSES INDIAN LEADER EASILY

DISTRICT CRACK FOURS TO MEET IN FIRST GAME

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 18.—George Sisler, St. Louis star, broke the tie which he shared last week with Tris Speaker, Cleveland Indians manager, and is topping the American league batting with an average of .338, according to averages released today, and which include games of Wednesday. Speaker is now points behind with .332, while Joe Jackson, Chicago White Sox, stands third with .328.

Babe Is Fourth.
"Babe" Ruth, of the New York Yankees, the home run marvel who is hitting in fourth place with an average of .312, made three home runs since Wednesday, a week ago, and brought his total to 49, one less than the mark he set out to reach this season. He also carried his total runs record to 147 and is far ahead in the number of runs scored, having registered 147.

Ruth, of Washington, leads the home run list with 21 hits.
Other leading batters for 75 or more games: E. Collins, Chicago, .327; Mike, New York, .322; Judge, Washington, .321; Jacobson, St. Louis, .317; Mike, Washington, .316; Weaver, Chicago, .315; Folsom, Chicago, .311; Cobb, St. Louis, .310; Hendrix, Boston, .309.

Nichols, of Pittsburgh, struck a solid blow in his batting during the past week, while Roger Hornsby, of St. Louis, got into a hitting stride. The former dropped

Champ Dempsey Unwilling To Change His Boxing Style

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Jack Dempsey will let outsiders tell him a lot of things, but there's one thing that a scribbler can't tell him and that is how to fight.
Coming to New York from Chicago with Dempsey and Kearns we heard some queer stories. Dempsey pulled the funny, however, and got quite a giggle from the listening series.

"This kid comes up to me at the camp," piped Jack, leaning back, "and says to me, 'I want to write the greatest fight story that was ever written and you'll get a great boost from it. This is the year reputation day is that of being the hardest hitting heavyweights ever saw. Now in order for this story to go big you have to do exactly as I say, get me!'"

"I told him I want you to change your style entirely, see. Instead of the regular boxer style you usually use, I want you to be a Jim Corbett. Get me! Dance and box and make him miss and DON'T EVEN GO NEAR HIM!"

"I had to stop him there. I patted him on the back and said, 'My boy, you'll probably be the greatest author in the world some day, but not with my help. I'll do the fighting my own way, and you'll wait your way.'"

Pomona Joe Gets Speaks.
Leo Flynn who manages Bill Brennan, the Pomona fighter, told us that you can bet a chunk that Pomona Joe is the blackest fighter alive, but his heart is red.

He helped Dempsey train for the fight with Kearns.

Busy Schedule Is On Tap For Big Football Elevens

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Football will be a delectable morsel for followers of that great college sport this fall—and indications point to the most successful season the game ever saw, notwithstanding the fact that records reaching high into the thousands already have been established at classic games.

The enormous crowds which have witnessed football battles during the summer only foretell what may happen when Yale and Harvard, Ohio State and Illinois, Princeton and Harvard, Columbia and Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh and West Virginia and Center college and Harvard meet this year. Chances are that the great crowds which saw the Yale-Harvard contest three years ago in the Yale bowl will be pressed into the limit by enthusiastic fans this fall.

Schedule makers have outdone themselves in arranging games for the public benefit. Of course, that was farthest from their minds when they agreed to contests for the public benefit, but it is almost with a sigh that they have agreed to the fact that the game will be played for the benefit of college athletics.

Some good and bad news. First while the season September 22, we will have with us a carefully arranged list of games, designed to lead elevens which are regarded as certain victors. That will only blaze the trail for the same day that Harvard takes on Holy Cross at Cambridge on that day, while West Virginia will go into training for her heavier games through a battle at Morgantown with West Virginia.

Neither Yale nor Princeton will send their elevens on the field on the opening day unless some changes are made in the schedule of these universities.

October 2 will see the real opening for the more important schools. Yale will have a rather hard argument in taking on Carnegie Tech at New Haven. If present indications point to the strength of the Pittsburgh outfit, Penn State meets Gettysburg, Princeton battles Northampton, Pennsylvania battles Bucknell. Army is scheduled with Union and the Navy with North Carolina. Harvard will go into its second struggle with Maine, its opponent at Cambridge.

Those games are merely feeling out affairs for the most part and probably will be followed by a series of football has proven itself to be an uncertain in the past that it will be the only one to remain. From crowning any team a champion until these earlier games have been disposed of.

Each of the nation will be turned on Cambridge that day, for there are many followers of Charles Moran's boys who believe the little school will take the measure of what has come to be regarded as the nation's foremost exponent of football. Center is regarded as the team that will return to school this fall.

On the same day that Harvard is struggling with the little school's representatives Yale will be entertaining a western visitor at New Haven.

Cubs Are In For Lecture

THERE is plenty of investigation on the alleged Cubs gambling scandal. Besides the baseball writers' inquiry and that of the city officials, the grand jury in the Cook County criminal court, presided over by Judge Charles A. McDermott, has been looking into the case and see if the situation is one to warrant indictment and criminal prosecution.

Attorney Hoyne also announced that he would go after professional gamblers and have the law on them. Judge McDermott, who gave the grand jury instructions to investigate the case, said that he had the National Commission. He is a loyal baseball fan and a student of the game from all angles.
